Stage Rental Terms & Conditions

Payment

For all non-established accounts, a booking is confirmed only upon receipt of your deposit of 50% of the estimated total rental amount. The balance is due on the rental date. Additional charges may be added in circumstances where damage to equipment and/or the premises has occurred during your shoot.

Length of use

Daily rental is for ten hours. Studio cleanup must be completed by the end of the rental period. Overtime will be charged after ten hours. If you think you will be longer than ten hours please let us know as soon as possible.

Waiver of Liability and Insurance

Rental of the facilities constitutes an agreement by the company renting the stage to indemnify and hold harmless Blue Sky Photography, Inc. from any liability for damages to any person or property arising from its use of the facilities, props, equipment, materials, and any operation in or about the facilities. In addition a certificate of insurance naming Blue Sky Photography, Inc. as additional insured must be provided before rental begins.

Renter's Responsibilities

Renter agrees to leave the studio and adjacent property in the same condition as they were when you arrived. A charge will be made for cleaning if not returned to the same condition. Props and set scrap are the responsibility of the company renting the stage and arrangements must be made for proper disposal. Special painting, smoke or water effects must be pre-approved. The renter is responsible for repair and / or replacement of any stage equipment damaged during use of the facility. This includes any damage to the floor or cyc from water, improper paint or other substances including residue from certain smoke effects. These charges will include materials, labor and loss of revenue resulting from down time.
